

Agenda

Transforming Healthcare Together

Virtual Conference 2020

The conference will be chaired by Ben Cairns and co-facilitated by Helen Garforth and Charlotte Pace, long-standing leaders of the Building Health Partnerships programme.

Tuesday 17 November

Time	Session	Description
9:30-11:00	Virtual tea/coffee and networking Facilitated by Helen Garforth and Charlotte Pace	A chance to meet with other people working in cross-sector partnerships across health and care, and share the frustrations and excitement, achievements and hope for the future.
13:00-14:30	Plenary: Setting context Chaired by Ben Cairns	This session will set the context for the day as a celebration of the role cross-sector collaboration has played in responding to the pandemic. We'll hear from: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dr Neil Churchill, Director for Experience, Participation and Equalities at NHS England and NHS Improvement• Professor Donna Hall, Chair of the New Local Government Network and described as a 'public service pioneer' by the Mayor of Greater Manchester, Andy Burnham. We'll end by taking a few moments to look after ourselves, led by Susie Tate, dance artist in education and health & wellbeing, working in North Cumbria.
15:00-16:30	Managing the digital divide Facilitated by Helen Garforth	The pandemic has seen a huge transformation in the use of digital in delivering health and care services. There has been a call for digital by default by the Minister for Health and Social Care. But what does this mean for users of these services as well as service providers? It has the potential to exacerbate inequalities of access to care and support but also the power to revolutionise care for others. What value can a cross sector approach to digital provision bring to health and care service users? We'll hear from Rebecca Steinfeld at National Voices (Dr Zoom), Jo Proctor and Iane Chambers at Big Local SO18 and NHS England and NHS Improvement.

Wednesday 18 November

Time	Session	Description
9:30-11:00	What do good partnerships in health and care look like in this 'living with Covid' period? Facilitated by Charlotte Pace	The need to respond to the pandemic saw barriers come down, silos bridged, and new partnerships formed at pace with a common goal. Some were more effective than others, hear case studies of what made partnerships more effective during this period and the outcomes that they achieved: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Susan Harris, Executive Director of Strategy and Partnerships (Worcestershire Health and Care NHS Trust) and STP Communications and Engagement Lead and Carol Cumino, Chief Executive, Worcestershire Association of Carers • Peta Wilkinson, Chief Executive, Willen Hospice, Milton Keynes • Jane Soothill, Communities and Prevention Officer, Surrey Country Council • Jason Stamp, Chief Officer, North Bank Forum for Voluntary Organisations Limited and Leah Swain, Chief Executive, Community First Yorkshire
12:30-14:00	How can strong partnerships help in dealing with uncertainty? What tools do we need to sustain them? Facilitated by Helen Garforth	Let's explore how cross-sector collaboration could support forward-planning ahead when the future seems so uncertain. We will also discuss approaches, structures and ways of working that can help sustain relationships for the long-term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jon Rush, Chair, NHS North Cumbria Clinical Commissioning Group and Julie Clayton, Head of Communications and Engagement, NHS North Cumbria Clinical Commissioning Group • Nicola Jones, Public Health Manager, Wirral Council and Amy Butterworth, Chief Executive Officer, Make it Happen • Karen Loftus, Chief Executive, Can 100 and Rob Munro, Senior Programme Lead, Primary and Community Care Team, Dorset CCG
14:30-15:30	Health inequalities and Covid-19: How can we respond collaboratively? Facilitated by Charlotte Pace	Covid-19 has demonstrated the impact health inequalities have on individuals' susceptibility to illness in real time. Health inequalities are not just about health, but the way that education, housing and opportunities interact to impact on an individuals' health outcomes. In the current context – of the Black Lives Matter movement and of ethnically diverse people being disproportionately affected by Covid-19 – this session will explore how collaboration could help us to address health inequalities. We'll hear from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cecily Mwaniki and Dr Esther Oenga, of Utulivu Sharmarke Diriye, Programme Lead, Golden Opportunity Skills and Development (GOSAD).
16:00-17:00	Closing plenary With concluding remarks from Helen Garforth, Charlotte Pace and Ben Cairns	An opportunity to celebrate what cross-sector partnerships have achieved – over the years and in recent months. We'll hear from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Karen Kirkham, Senior Medical Advisor Primary Care Provider Transformation NHSE/I, Integrated Care System Clinical Lead Dorset and Assistant Clinical Chair Dorset CCG and Locality Chair Weymouth and Portland. • Sherida Collins, Commissioner, Manchester Health & Social Care Partnership.